NUMB. 1622

SATURDAY, AUGUST 30. 1740.

No. 1620.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Rome, Aug. 30 N.S.

AFTER the Election of Cardinal Prosper Lambertini for Pope, he was carried behind the Altar, where the Cardinals Habit was exchange'd for the Pontifical Vestment, after which he was carried in his Chair and set down before the Altar, whither the Cardinals came according to Custom to adore him. After this Ceremony the Pope's Election was notify'd to the People, by a Discharge of the Artillery from the Castle of St. Angelo and the ringing of all the Bells. Then the Pope was carry'd to the Altar of Sixtus's Chapel, where he receiv'd a second Adoration. About 4 o'Clock the Vergers carry'd him under a Canopy to St. Peter's Church, and plac'd him in the Middle before the High Altar, when Te Deum was immediately sung, and the Cardinals came to adore him for the third time, and kiss'd his Hand and Cheek, after which the Pope was conducted to his Apartment, Cardinal Coscia now enjoys full Liberty, and there seems to be an End of the Process that was commenc'd against him. He is actually preparing to cut a splendid Figure, his Equivocal and Liveries being in hand, and a Palace being not only hir'd but sitting up for him: And there are some People who even venture to prophesy that his Eminence will soon be restor'd to the Archbishoprick of Benevento, which he held under Benedict XIII. and which became vacant a while ago by the Death of Cardinal Cenci.

Cádiz, Aug. 9. The Captain of a foreign Ship just arriv'd says, that on the 2d Inst. he met at some Distance from Cape Finisterre, steering South, the French Squadron, consisting of 12 Ships of the Line, 3 frigates, a Fireship, and other Vessels; and that it was on board 5 Battalions of Regular Forces, besides several detach'd Companies, and all Sorts of Provision and Ammunition in abundance. 'Tis said there are great many sick Men on board some of the Vessels.

Madrid, Aug. 16. 'Tis now said, that the Squadron from Ferrol is bound for America; that there are 5000 Men on board, with a great Quantity of Arms, &c. and that the said Squadron is to join at under Don Blaise de Lezo which is at Carthage, in order to execute some important Enterprize. The Court has sent an Order to Don Rodrigo Torres, the Commodore of the Ferrol Squadron, that when he comes to a certain Latitude he must detach 4 or 5 Ships to the South Sea. Last Week 15 or 20 Persons were brought hither from the Græne, who are concern'd in the Correspondence which the English held with several Inhabitants of that Place. Among other Papers a Letter has been seiz'd and sent to Court, which contains a Plan of the Measures to be taken for surprizing the Harbour of Corunna, and it is said that one of the Correspondents has receiv'd less than 1000 Guineas. These Discoveries are more surprizing here, because Spain is a Country in which Treason of this Kind is very uncommon. The Garrison of St. Sebastian and the Forts defending the Harbour are considerably augmented.

Vinna, Aug. 24. N.S. Yesterday the Turkish Ambassador made his Publick Entry here, according to the Ceremonial settled with him in Conformity to that which was observ'd in 1719. He was mounted on one of the Emperor's Horses richly accoutred, dress'd in a Scarlet Robe lin'd with Ermin and embroider'd with Gold, and had a Turban on his Head, with a sash adorn'd with precious Stones.

Warsaw, Aug. 24. N.S. The Tribunal of Posna has pass'd a Decree, That in order to prevent any suspicious hereafter against the Jews touching the Murder of Infants, they are forbid to be in the same company with the Christians and particularly with children, because if any happen to be lost, and it can be prov'd by two Witnesses that a Jew entic'd it or receiv'd it, he shall be answerable for the Loss of such Child. The Magistrates are order'd to separate the Jews Quarter from the rest of the Town by a Wall or fence, and to shut up the Gates of the said Quarter every Night themselves, as well as to open them again in the Morning. The Jews are oblig'd to retire home every Night at the Striking of the Town house Clock, and if any be found abroad after that time, the President of the Regency may take 'em up. The Gates of the Jews Quarter are to be guarded by the City Soldiers. They are to have no Christian Domestic or Nurses, on the Penalty of 100 l. The Jewish Merchants and Mercers shall not frequent the Markets of the Christians but upon certain Days of the Week, and never upon Saints Days. The Jews may have their own Physicians and Surgeons, but the latter shall not serve the Christians.

Mentz, Aug. 30 N.S. We hear from Creutznach, that one Night last Week 5 Jews entered the House of a Jeweller there, whom they murder'd, and then robb'd his House and set fire to it, which however being discover'd in time, was quickly extinguish'd; two of those Miscreants were seiz'd on the Spot, and the other three in a little time after.

Hague, Sept. 6. N.S. They write from Catwyck, that on the 31st ult. the Fishermen brought in a Vessel thither, which they found off of the Maese without any Person on board, or so much as any Mark whereby it might be known from whence she came; but that it appears to have been built in Sweden in 1736, is 80 Foot long, and is laden with Steel, Iron, Nails, Pitch, Tar, Wood, &c.

They write from Aurick in East Friseland, that the Pregnancy of the most Serene Princess has been declar'd at Court, and that Prayers are ordered throughout that Principality for her Highness's happy Delivery.

L O N D O N.

The Letters from Italy tell us, that the New Pope was a long Time Auditor of the Rota at Rome; that he has the universal Character of a very learned Man, especially in the Canon Law; having, among other Books, compos'd a Work which is very much esteem'd in 5 Volumes in Folio, concerning the Ceremony of the Canonization of Saints, and the Qualifications necessary for it.

Some Letters from Munich say, That the Elector of Bavaria has concluded a new Treaty of Subsidy with the Court of France.

The King of Prussia arriv'd the 18th Instant at Wezel. 'Tis said that his Majesty will permit the Importation of Stuffs, &c. prohibited by the late King.

'Tis said that Mr. Handel the famous Composer of Musick, who is gone from hence to Aix la Chapelle, will go to Berlin to wait the Return of the King of Prussia.

We hear that the Count d'Osteln, the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary at Hanover, proposes to make a very fine Figure when he comes to England.

They write from Lisbon, that the French Merchants and the French Minister have complain'd, and demanded Satisfaction, for what they call an Insult committed by an English Man of War, which about the latter End of last Month, when at Anchor under the Fortress, fir'd 5 or 6 Cannon-shot, just as a French Merchant-ship enter'd that Harbour.

The Velt-Marshall de Munich is entirely recover'd of his Indisposition: And they tell us from Petersburg, that the Czarina has no less than 22 Men of War at Cronstadt, and that she has only sent some Frigates to cruise in the Baltic.

Letters of the 9th from Stockholm say, that the King of Sweden, who was indisposed, is also recover'd; and that he lately made his last Will and Testament, which they say contains several Clauses very much to the Advantage of his Nephew Prince Frederick of Hesse.

They write from Dover the 28th, That there is a Spanish Privateer at Calais, who is said to have taken three English Prizes. The Privateer is a Barque Longus, has 45 Men, 12 Swivel Guns, and rows with 24 Oars.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, with several other Persons of Distinction, din'd with his Grace the Duke of Marlborough in his Tent at the Camp on Hounslow-heath.

The same Day their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales set out from Norfolk House St. James's-square for Cliefden in Buckinghamshire.

The same Day was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleas'd to put into Commission two Bomb-keepers, and gave the Command thereof to Sir Wm. Hewitt, and Capt. Pokinhorn, who for many Years has been a Lieutenant in the Navy.

On Thursday Night last an Express arriv'd from Sir John Norris at the Admiralty-Office, with an Account that the Squadron under his Command, together with the Fleet of Merchant-ships which sail'd from Torbay on Friday last, were by contrary Winds forced back again to the said Harbour; and that the Duke of Cumberland was in good Health.
